COLORED MURDERER

Who Killed Another Negro At Paris Several Years Ago Arrested In This City Yesterday.

Acting upon a tip given to him several days ago, Chief of Police Mackey, with the assistance of Constable James McNamara, Detective Herbie, Officers Tolle and Fizer, yesterday afternoon about 3 o'clock arrested Axie Boyd, a negro, who is wanted in Paris for the killing of another negro several years ago.

Boyd was found at the home of a negro known as "Gamble Eye," on Ford's Hill. He seemed very much disinclined to talk but he admitted that he was the fellow wanted. He said that he did not remember the name of the fellow he killed but that he killed him on account of the fact that he, Boyd, was followed around by the other fellow.

As soon as Chief Mackey hears from the Paris authorities he will deliver his prisoner into their hands.

EUROPE RACKED

BY WAR AND EARTHQUAKES—APPALLING SITUATION MAKES THE WORLD GASP WITH HORROR.

Beautiful Italian Cities Now Heaps of Wreckage.

BATTLING MILLIONS PREPARE FOR MIGHTY DEATH STRUGGLE.

Dead In Earthquake Said To Be 40,000. Rome, January 18.—Detailed reports received in Rome regarding Italy's earthquake increases the appalling list of dead and the enormous property loss. The number of dead and injured in the Abruzzi alone is 30,000, while the number of bodies under the debris at Avezzano is 12,000.

From the ruins of the latter place 18 persons were taken out yesterday, still alive after three days had elapsed. Tremors have not ceased at Sora, where cold rains have added to the suffering.

At Avezzano.

Avezzano, Italy, January 18.—More than 2,000 soldiers are at work on the ruins of Avezzano. Signor Ciuffelli, minister of public works, estimates the number of dead in the Avezzano district at 20,000 and 10,000 injured.

Situation At Magliano.

Magliano Di Marsi, January 18.—This town, higher up in the mountains, has suffered scarcely less from the earthquake than Chappelle, its neighboring village. There are 1,300 dead and 300 wounded in a population of 2,400. Less than 100 bodies have so far been recovered.

English and French Prisoners Shot.

London, January 18.—The Amsterdam correspondent of the Central News, reports that three English prisoners who escaped from Louvain have been arrested and shot.

Serious rioting occurred at the prisoners' camp at Neerwinden, the same correspondent reports. The prisoners attacked the German guards, killing one, whereupon drastic methods of repression were adopted. Six Englishmen and eight French Turcos were shot.

Russians Routing the Turks.

Petrograd, January 18.—A late communication from the army of the Caucasus gives some details of the Russian victory at Kara-Urgan. It says:

"During the last three days of the battle of Kara-Urgan a violent snowstorm raged uninterruptedly. The conflict terminated in a complete victory for our army."

Feroocious Fighting.

Detailed descriptions of the battle along the Aisne, supplementing the brief announcements of the French and German war offices, show that the fighting rivalled in ferocity that which occurred along the Yser canal in Flanders, when the Germans attempted to break through to the English channel, although the number of men engaged was smaller.

In the suburbs of Soissons were hand to hand encounters of the most desperate nature, in which the French Moroccan regiments distinguished themselves, using their rifles as clubs after their bayonets had been bent or broken in the pitiless struggle.

Advices from French sources say that the allied front, in the positions taken up after the retreat, is stronger than ever.

Expect German Dash.

London, January 18.—London is recalling that this is the forty-fourth anniversary of the proclamation of William I. as German Emperor, and in the British capital it is expected that the day may bring news of a widespread German effort to follow up with a still more important movement the success achieved last week in the neighborhood of Soissons.

WHISKY GIVEN TO HEALTH LEAGUE.

By order of the Mason Circuit Court 56 pints of whisky which were confiscated from William Edgar by Chief of Police Mackey when Edgar was arrested for bootlegging, will be given to Miss Annie M. Casey for use of the Mason County Health League for medicinal purposes. Chief Mackey was given a copy of the order and will deliver the whisky to Miss Casey. At this time of court Edgar filed suit against Mackey to again get possession of the whisky and this is the disposal of it as was made by Circuit Judge C. D. Newell.

FIRST PRESBYTERIAN CHURCH MEETING.

The second week of the revival meetings at the First Presbyterian church opens well. The attendances have increased, notwithstanding that four of the nights have been very bad weather. Last night a good number were present and four confessions were made. It rests with the Christian people how many can be brought under the preaching of the Word.

The evangelist, Rev. Connor Brown, has grown in power and attractiveness. Last night he compared the church to a life saving station. Showed how absurd the hearing of a church which had a fine station and a well-manned crew and have forgotten what they were for, trusting for sinners to come to them. How long would the government tolerate such a set? How long will God tolerate a church which has deserted the work it is given to do?

Pastors and members of other churches are taking an active interest and it is hoped that all churches will be helped by the meetings.

Services tonight at 7 o'clock.

IMPROVES SLOWLY.

Mr. Charles L. Rosenham, local superintendent of the Western & Southern Life Insurance Company, who had his leg broken a month ago, and who has since been at Hayswood Hospital, is improving very slowly. It was hoped to have taken him to his home yesterday but the condition of his limb prevented it, and now it is reported it will be some time before he can leave the hospital.

WOMEN'S MISSIONARY MEETING.

The Women's Missionary Society of the First M. E. church, South, will meet at the church Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock and will adjourn in time to attend the meeting at Mrs. Campbell's at 4 o'clock.

MRS. R. P. MOODY, Sec.

Mr. Roy Brown is building a pretty cottage for Mrs. Charles Williams on the Pelham farm, now owned by the Maysville Brick Company, adjoining the old Fair Grounds.

JUSTICE TO COL. THOMAS A. DAVIS.

A Ledger reporter last Saturday tried to take a year off of the total number of years which Col. Thomas A. Davis, the Nestor of eastern Kentucky journalism, is entitled to.

Mr. Davis rounded out his seventy-fifth birthday last Sunday, January 17, instead of 74, as we had it, thus passing the three-quarters of a century mark.

While Mr. Davis probably would like to lose a lot of his years and be a youngster once more, yet his former paper, The Public Ledger, must try to give the facts.

However, 75 years in Maysville is a record any man should be proud of.

POLITICAL PERSIMMONS.

"Watchful Waiting" is not a dividend-bearing policy, and earns no interest on the principle. Bad use of good opportunities begets psychological conditions.

The Democratic Platform leaks around the High Cost of Living Plank.

The administration promises to do something systematic for the workingmen. It has been pretty systematic in what it has done for business.

There is no longer such a thing as a Trust—or even Confidence.

The Heels of the Democratic donkey are just as efficient as ever.

I believed Woodrow Wilson was a Great and Good man, and I'm still clinging to the "Good."

The Income Tacks looks like Coffin Nails to some people.

In Mexico Wilson could be elected President of the United States any day.

The Mexican situation renders this the psychological moment for freeing the Philippines, and the European situation ditto for domestic disarmament.

A Tariff for Revenue Lonely necessitates a War Tax for deficit Only.

Anyhow, Wilson has solved one problem for his party, a problem in subtraction, the answer is W. J. B.

The President was unable to get the range of Texas from Indianapolis. And Texas is—the Ranger State.

An Oracle is at a disadvantage in the White House.—Commercial Tribune.

MR. WILSON'S SOURCE OF INSPIRATION.

A Democratic party always optimistic and never downcast presents, 18 months before its national convention is to be held, these aspirants for its nomination for President:

Woodrow Wilson—Coy.
Champ Clark—Receptive.
William G. McAdoo—Ardent.
William J. Bryan—Perennial.

This illuminating list of possibilities was undoubtedly before the President when he spoke at Indianapolis on Jackson day. It contains the names of all the potential candidates who have emerged from obscurity or succeeded in retaining places in the political sun since the Democrats came into power in 1912. Does it not reveal immediately the psychological processes by which the President arrived at the conclusion, announced by him to the Indiana brethren, that the Democracy is the young man's party?—New York Sun.

NICE ON DISCHARGED OHIO RAILROAD MEN.

According to the utilities commission 26,323 railroad employees have been laid off permanently from the steam railways of Ohio, since the inauguration of President Wilson, the commission doesn't say it just that way, but states that the railroad have decreased the number of their operatives that number compared to 1913.

JOHN BULL'S ANSWER.

The substance of the British note relative to interference with our overseas commerce is that it almost kills John Bull to hold up an American ship or cargo, but that he is going to keep right on doing it.—New York World.

PREFERRED CHRISTMAS.

Russia waited until after Thanksgiving before giving it to Turkey in the neck.—Richmond Journal.

FOR SOCIAL REFORM.

There is to be a campaign in favor of social reform to be carried on during this session of the Legislature. The object is good and we do not lay a straw in the way. But we want to say this boldly and bluntly, that if the education in the schools were conducted more on the plane of the spirit, there would not be half the need for these social reforms. Our education is too materialistic—that's what's the matter; and being so, we must expect these degenerating influences. It is absolutely impossible for there to be culture without spirituality. The trouble with many people in accepting this idea, is that they mix dogma and spirituality, when in fact, the two are not acquainted. They are the opposites of one another. Put more spirit in our education, and in ten years social reform and intellectual ardor will be far ahead of what they are now.—Ohio State Journal.

COMPETING WITH CHINESE LABOR.

The Democratic tariff bill put pig iron on the free list along with rails, steel ingots, etc. The result of this has been depression in the iron and steel manufacturing industry, and what is more, a Chinese firm has got a contract to furnish 350,000 tons of manufactured pig iron to a firm in Seattle. The Chinese workers in the iron mills of China get 20 cents a day for ten and a half hours of hard labor. The Democrats think it is wise to make a law that forces our working people to compete with that kind of labor. As a result of this unwise Democratic tariff, the ore shipments from the Lake Superior district for the present season, up to the first day of September, show a loss of 10,735,649 tons, or 33 per cent loss, compared with the same period last year.—Nashua (N. H.) Telegraph.

SHOULD BE EMANCIPATED.

A man down at Mud Lick, in Monroe county, 25 miles from Glasgow, owns a mule which has made a remarkable working record. The animal in question is 28 years old and was broken to work at three years of age, and since that time has averaged two trips a week to Glasgow, either with produce, lumber or freight. This makes an average of travel of 100 miles per week with a loaded wagon, or 130,000 miles in its work life in addition to other hauling. That mule ought to be emancipated. It has done enough work to entitle it to a pension and its owner ought to see that it passes the remainder of its life in peace and plenty.—State Journal.

BILLY SUNDAY'S BOMB.

The Rev. Billy Sunday officially "cut loose" in Philadelphia a few days ago for a revival series of nine weeks. Here is Billy's greeting to the staid old gentlemen and gentlewomen of the Quaker City:

There's no denying that Billy goes Sam Jones and other evangelists of the "rip-roaring" brand one better, but we can't help thinking what a shock this verbal bomb from his celestial aeroplane must have been to some of the dwellers in the City of Brotherly love.—Louisville Times.

THE REAL CHEF.

Chef to instruct women.—Headline.
Judging from the offerings of some of the chefs of this city it will occur to their victims that the average woman could teach them a whole lot.—New York Sun.

Getting Even.

An Irishman having had trouble with a railroad company, declared he would get even with them, and meeting a friend some time later, said: "Well I got even with that railroad all right—I bought a round trip ticket and walked back."

Mary Knew.

The teacher was examining the class in physiology.
"Mary, can you tell us," she asked, "what is the function of the stomach?"
"The function of the stomach," the little girl answered, "is to hold up the petticoat."
"Woman's crowning glory" sounds all right, but she never looks her best when she is drying her hair.

A WORD WITH WOMEN

Valuable Advice for Maysville Readers.

Many a woman endures with noble patience the daily misery of backache, pains about the hips, blue, nervous spells, dizziness and urinary disorders, hopeless of relief because she doesn't know what is the matter.

It is not true that every pain in the back or hips is trouble "peculiar to the sex." Often when the kidneys get congested and inflamed, such aches and pains follow.

You can tell it is kidney trouble if the secretions are dark colored, contain sediment, the passages are too frequent or scanty. Then help the weakened kidneys. Don't expect them to get well alone.

Doan's Kidney Pills have won the praise of thousands of women. They are endorsed at home—Read this Maysville woman's convincing statement:

Mrs. Dora Mefford, Maysville, Ky., says: "I had been feeling poorly for some time, before I knew that my kidneys were at fault. I was nervous and dizzy and my back and head ached. I rested poorly and mornings I was all tired out. I read in a local paper how a neighbor had been cured of kidney trouble by Doan's Kidney Pills. I used them and before long I was a great deal better. I was able to sleep well and they improved my health."

Price 50c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mrs. Mefford had. Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

SOME BRIDAL HINTS.

All who kiss the bride after the ceremony before the husband does so secure for themselves good luck for the year.

If the happy pair drive to the church to be married it is unlucky for the bride's horse or horses to stumble. Let their driver, therefore, be cautious.

Should two members of one family intermarry with two members of another, they incur the danger of death to one of them within the year.

A bridal party should not leave land; if they do, they should beware of going down stream.

If the bride wishes to look at herself in the glass after making her toilet, she must leave one hand ungloved.

When a bride has started on her wedding journey, she must on no account return to her former home. If anything has been forgotten she must have it sent on, not go back and fetch it.

THE FIVE SENSES.

In a primary school examination one of the questions was to name the five senses. One of the bright pupils handled the question thus:

"The five senses are: Sneezing, sobbing, crying, yawning, coughing. By the sixth sense is meant an extra one which some folks have. This is snoring."

BETRAYED BY HER SISTER.

The advanced maiden was out rowing with a possible suitor and had taken her little sister along, who was exhibiting much fear at the waves.

"Why, Martha, if you are so nervous now, what will you be at my age?"
"Thirty-nine, I suppose," meekly replied little sister.—New York Times.

THE RURAL PRESS

The Local Paper a Most Useful Agency On the Farm—The Press, Public and School a Trinity of Influence That Must Be Utilized In Building Agriculture.

By Peter Radford
Lecturer National Farmers' Union

A broad campaign of publicity on the subject of rural life is needed in this state today to bring the problems of the farmers to the forefront. The city problems are blazoned upon the front pages of the metropolitan dailies and echoed in the country press, but the troubles of the farmers are seldom told, except by those who seek to profit by the story, and the glitter of the package oftentimes obscures the substance. A searching investigation into the needs of the farmers will reveal many inherent defects in our economic system that can be easily remedied when properly understood and illuminated by the power of the press.

The rural press, the pulpit and the school are a trinity of powerful influences that the farmer must utilize to their fullest capacity before he can occupy a commanding position in public affairs. These gigantic agencies are organized in every rural community and only await the patronage and co-operation of the farmers to fully develop their energy and usefulness. They are local forces working for the best interests of their respective communities. Their work is to build and their object is to serve. They prosper only through the development and prosperity of the community.

Every farmer in this state should subscribe for the local paper, as well as farm periodicals and such other publications as he may find profitable, but he should by all means subscribe for his local paper, and no home should be without it. The local paper is part of the community life and the editor understands the farmer's problems. It is the local press that will study the local problems and through its columns deal with subjects of most vital importance to local life of the community.

A Noble Task.

In too many instances the country papers mimic the city press by giving prominence to scandals, accidents and political agitation. The new rural civilization has placed upon the rural press renewed responsibilities, and enlarged possibilities for usefulness. It cannot perform its mission to agriculture by recording the frailties, the mishaps and inordinate ambitions of humanity, or by filling its columns with the echoes of the struggles of busy streets, or by enchanting stories of city life which lure our children from the farm.

It has a higher and nobler task. Too often the pages of the city dailies bristle with the struggle of ambitious men in their wild lust for power, and many times the flames of personal conflict sear the tender buds of new civilization and illuminate the pathway to destruction. The rural press is the governing power of public sentiment and must hold steadfast to principle and keep the ship of state in the roadstead of progress. The rural press can best serve the interests of the farmers by applying its energies to the solution of problems affecting the local community. It must stem the mighty life current that is moving from the farm to the cities, sweeping before it a thousand boys and girls per day. It has to deal with the fundamental problems of civilization at their fountain head. Its mission is to direct growth, teach efficiency and mold the intellectual life of the country, placing before the public the daily problems of the farmers and giving first attention to the legislative, co-operative, educational and social needs of the agricultural classes within its respective community.

The Power of Advertising.

The influence of advertising is clearly visible in the homes and habits of the farmers, and the advertising columns of the press are making their imprint upon the lives of our people. The farmer possesses the things that are best advertised.

The farmer is entitled to all the advantages and deserves all the luxuries of life. We need more art, science and useful facilities on the farms, and many homes and farms are well balanced in this respect, but the advertiser can render a service by teaching the advantages of modern equipment throughout the columns of the rural press.

SECOND HUSBAND LEAVES

When Wife Gets Letter From First Spouse In Ohio.

Warren, Pa.—Perhaps not quite as romantic but more like Tennyson's "Enoch Arden" are the marital entanglements of Mrs. William B. Runion, whose husband, to whom she was married a year ago, has left because her first husband, J. B. Staat, has written her from Wellsville, O., that he is alive and well.

SHE IS A WISE WOMAN.

Who recognizes in the tell-tale symptoms such as backache, headaches, dragging sensations, nervousness and irritability the true cause and relies on Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound to restore her to a healthy normal condition. For forty years this root and herb remedy has been preeminently successful in controlling the diseases of women. Merit alone could have stood such a test of time.

FRIEND AT COURT.

"Have you said your prayers?" asked the mother.

"Of course," replied the child.

"And did you ask to be made a better little girl?"

"Yes; and I put in a word for you and father, too!"

CHILD LABOR

Nation Wide Observance of January 24—Ministers To Speak In Every Church.

January 24 will be Child Labor day. Through the co-operation of clergymen and school principals the National Child Labor Committee will then bring the message of the working children before many thousands of people throughout the country. The special topic for Child Labor day this year is the need of a federal law prohibiting the shipment in interstate commerce of factory, mill and cannery products in the making of which children under 14 have been employed, and children under 16 have worked at night or more than 8 hours a day. A bill with these three provisions and also a straight 16-year-old age limit for mine workers is now pending in Congress, having been introduced by Hon. A. Mitchell Palmer of Pennsylvania and Senator Owen of Oklahoma.

NEW KIND OF LIGHT.

Hostess (to her little guest)—So you don't burn gas up at your house at all? Dorothy—Oh, no, indeed! Every bit of light we use is sent by telegraph.

The morning sun rose grandly in the east,
Pursued its course athwart the trembling sky;
Its swift descent to evening shades began,
Then lower sank, and seemed to slowly die,
Until exhausted, red-west in the west,
Its funeral moan—the sun had died its best.

TO INQUIRE INTO EMBARGOES ON FREIGHT.

Chicago, January 19.—The Interstate Commerce Commission has fixed tomorrow as the day for beginning hearings in this city on the complaint of shippers that the railroads' embargoes on freight often result in unjust discrimination. The commission has notified shippers and railroads that the entire question will be gone into, and that information will be received as to the necessities for embargoes, their frequency, their advantages, and the practicability of requiring the railroads to notify the public and the commission of each embargo.

LITTLE GRANDSON

Born In the White House To President Wilson Who Is Much Elated.

Washington.—A son was born at the White House Sunday to Mrs. Francis Boyes Sayre, President Wilson's second daughter.

Mrs. Sayre and child are reported to be doing well.

Secretary Tammaly gave out the following statement:

"Dr. Grayson, the White House physician, states that at 4:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon, Mrs. Sayre gave birth to a fine boy. Everything went perfectly and both are doing well."

The boy weighed 7 and a half pounds. He announced his arrival by a series of cries, which gave assurance that his lungs were in excellent condition.

President Wilson made no effort to conceal his joy when informed that the child was a boy and that Mrs. Sayre was well. His face was wreathed in smiles for hours afterward. It was his first grandchild and the President had no boys of his own.

Mr. Sayre, who is assistant to President Garfield of Williams College, was not at the White House when his son was born. Dr. Grayson reached him on the telephone at Williamstown, Mass., and he is now at Washington.

FAMILY AVOIDS SERIOUS SICKNESS

By Being Constantly Supplied With Theford's Black-Draught.

McDuff, Va.—"I suffered for several years," says Mrs. J. B. Whitaker, of this place, "with sick headache, and stomach trouble."

Ten years ago a friend told me to try Theford's Black-Draught, which I did, and I found it to be the best family medicine for young and old.

I keep Black-Draught on hand all the time now, and when my children feel a little bad, they ask me for a dose, and it does them more good than any medicine they ever tried.

We never have a long spell of sickness in our family, since we commenced using Black-Draught."

Theford's Black-Draught is purely vegetable, and has been found to regulate weak stomachs, aid digestion, relieve indigestion, colic, wind, nausea, headache, sick stomach, and similar symptoms.

It has been in constant use for more than 70 years, and has benefited more than a million people.

Your druggist sells and recommends Black-Draught. Price only 25c. Get a package to-day.

A POINTER FROM THE SKIES.

(Monday's Courier Journal.)
Astounded earth-beings saw a vast oblique interrogation point in the evening sky yesterday when Mercury passed over the lower horn of the moon and thousands stopped on the streets to marvel.

"It means what next?" suggested a pedestrian. "With the war and the earthquake, this little speck of an earth is causing the whole universe to sit up and take notice."

In the role of Evening Star Mercury has frequent meetings with the moon.

'A MIX-UP' CONVULSING NEW YORK.

Marie Dressler has captured New York with her mirth-provoking farce, "A Mix-Up," and the Thirty-ninth Street Theater is always well patronized. There is a vast amount of fun in the piece and some good players like Sarah McVicker, Bert Lytell, his wife, Evelyn Vaughan, and Julia Blane.
